

COALITION FOR THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT THE HAGUE SECRETARIAT

COMMUNICATIONS INTERNSHIP, CICC SECRETARIAT, THE HAGUE

The NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) is looking for a communications intern based in its office in The Hague, the Netherlands.

The Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC or the Coalition) is a network of over 2,500 civil society organizations in 150 countries, working together to ensure a fair, effective, and independent International Criminal Court (ICC). The ICC is the first permanent Court with the mandate to bring to justice individuals who commit genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes. The CICC is a project of the World Federalist Movement (WFM-IGP). For further information about the Court and the work of the Coalition, visit our website at: www.coalitionfortheicc.org.

QUALIFICATIONS

We are interested in applicants whose studies were/are related to Communications, Journalism, International Relations, Political Science, or other relevant field. Fluent knowledge of English is required. Good command of French, Spanish or Arabic is an asset.

DURATION OF THE INTERNSHIP

The Internship would be for a minimum of three months, starting June 2010. Interns work full-time and are expected to be at the office between 9:30 AM and 6 PM, unless other arrangements have been made.

WHAT TO EXPECT

This internship provides the opportunity to learn more on the Coalition's communications activities as well as to work in an enthusiastic, small and young international team which is part of a large international secretariat and a global network. The intern will work closely with and be supervised by the CICC's Hague-based Head of Communications and will assist the Communications team in its daily work. The intern will in particular help the team in monitoring and compiling news developments related to the Court's current investigations and cases. The intern will also help monitor, attend and report on international justice events taking place in The Hague. The intern will also assist in the production of CICC communications tools when needed, including its publications and website.

REMUNERATION

Unfortunately, internships at the CICC are unpaid. We recommend all prospective candidates to seek financial assistance from their academic institutions or seek outside fellowships, grants and personal resources. The CICC cannot sponsor individuals applying for internships to help them obtain visas.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- a) Review the information above carefully
- b) Please send your CV and a cover letter to Alix Vuillemin at: vuillemin@coalitionfortheicc.org.

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis and short-listed candidates are invited for an interview over the phone. Due to the great number of applications, only short-listed candidates will be contacted.
