(as published in the June 2002 issue of the ICC Monitor)

“As a country whose people have experienced great tragedy in the past, Cambodia is committed to striving for the cause of justice, for the promotion of human rights and democracy, and for the strengthening of the rule of law. It is our sincere obligation to join the international community to help bring an end to impunity, and thus we will do our utmost to be a fully supportive member of the International Criminal Court.”
