

Multimedia Consultant

About the Coalition for the International Criminal Court

The Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) was established in 1995 and has co-Secretariat offices in New York and The Hague. The Coalition is a global network of more than 2,500 civil society organizations working to ensure that the International Criminal Court (ICC) is fair, effective and independent. Our Steering Committee is comprised of 16 well-known human rights organizations from around the world.

The ICC is the world's first permanent court responsible for prosecuting the most serious violations of international humanitarian law, namely genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes.

For further information about the Coalition, visit us online at www.iccnw.org.

Job Description:

The CICC multimedia consultant will help archive and edit multimedia documents including digital photos and video footage. And if the intern has extensive experience in filmmaking; there is the possibility of editing footage into a documentary film. Projects include creating online photo galleries and slideshows using "Soundslides" software, creating an interactive identity brochure, developing a Public Service Announcement (PSA) or other "viral" marketing campaigns, maintaining our blog, taking and optimizing photo selections for our collateral materials including our flagship publication, The Monitor, and much more.

Qualifications

- Experience with websites, video-editing, and photography.
- Background in documenting and archiving. In particular, the intern should feel comfortable using Adobe Creative Suite software, including Adobe After Effects and/or other photo and video editing software.
- Familiarity with web content management systems and databases
- Creativity and sense of initiative is a plus, as is a commitment to social justice and human rights.

What We Offer:

- * Flexible and collegiate work atmosphere with ability to work fairly independently.
- * Opportunity to be part of a dynamic and evolving Communications team and international organization at a crucial time for the world's first permanent war crimes court, the Hague-based International Criminal Court.

* Modest weekly stipend

How to Apply:

The deadline for applications is rolling. Please send cover letter and CV to Peony Trinh,
Web and Publications Manager, trinh@iccnw.org or fax + 1 212 599 1332